BELL FOR GOVERNOR

State Convention Nominates Strong Ticket

Hatch For Supreme Bench

HON. JACKSON HATCH

The Democratic state convention met at Sacramento the past week and nominated Ex-Congressman Theodore A. Bell of Napa for Governor and Thomas O. Toland of Ventura for Lieutenant Governor.

East San Jose was honored by the nomination of their townsman, Hon. Jackson Hatch, for Associate Justice of the Supreme Court, which he received by acclamation. He was the first nominee of the convention, Hon. Nicholas Bowden presenting his name to the convention. This gives our county two nominees for the long term.

Those who were at Sacramento to claim the ticket is an exceptionally good one, especially are

A Word to Home Builders

We take this opportunity to announce that our equipment for caring for all plumbing contracts, consisting of either new work or overhauling, is unequaled, and we invite you to call and discuss the subject with us.

The workmen in our employ are competent and reliable mechanics, who have installed many bathrooms, to which we, as well as the owners, may point with no little pride.

The material we use is the best the market affords. We call attention particularly to the fact that we handle "Standard" Porcelain Enameled Ware, which is so widely advertised in all leading magazines.

"Standard" Ware has been manufactured for more than thirty years, and every piece bears a "Standard" "Green and Gold" guarantee label. We have samples in our showroom, and if you will call, will give you "Standard" booklets to study over at your home.

Fail to Prosecute.

A large number of fruit men from San Jose were in the United States Circuit Court in San Francisco Tuesday for the purpose of attending the trial of Leopold-Ferron & Co. vs. Geo. Frank & Co., but at the opening of the court plaintiff dismissed its cause of action and refused to go to trial. Leopold-Ferron & Co. claimed to have purchased from George Frank & Co. in the summer of 1905 several carloads of apricots. They claimed to have purchased them through a broker in Chicago, named John Adams. The George Frank Co. had never given this broker any authority to make these sales, and for that reason they were never accepted or filled. An attachment was levied by the United States Marshal in January of this year, and a keeper placed in charge of Mr. Frank's packing house on the Meridian road, but as the action has now been dismissed, the keeper will be removed and the attachment released. Will M. Beggs represented the Geo. Frank Co. as its attorney, and he now states that he intends to bring a suit for heavy damages against the Leopold-Ferron Co. for maliciously attaching his client's property.—Herald.

Gould's Road.

The Western Pacific will reduce the time of its building from Salt Lake City to San Francisco by six months and if possible a year. Its engineering department hopes to have the entire line completed and ready for use on January 1, 1909, with through passenger and freight trains from San Francisco to Baltimore.

This move is made as a result of the desire of the Goulds to get into San Francisco in time to grow up with the new business lines of that city.

In pursuance of their determination to have a through transcontinental route, the Goulds, through the engineering department have issued a call for 5000 men. They want laborers of every kind and are willing to pay high wages for their services. The Western Pacific has about 1500 men employed in construction work at this time. The Stone Company and the Utah Construction Company, which are doing some of the Western Pacific's contract work, are also seeking men.

Southern Pacific.

All the railroads are making elaborate preparations to handle what passenger agents predict will be the greatest westbound tourist traffic the Pacific Coast has ever known, this winter. The Southern Pacific Company has made arrangements to double the number of tourist cars heretofore in use to accommodate the large crowds of tourists that are now taking advantage of the low rates that are now offered.

The Southern Pacific Company is spending $75,000 on a descriptive book dealing with the Pacific Coast and California in particular.

This is the new edition of "A Road of a Thousand Wonders," which did so much good missionary work for business interests on the Coast. It is one of the finest examples of color printing ever sent out from any press. It will be distributed in the East.

CONDENSED NEWS

[East San Jose Post]

Registration for the fall elections will close September 26th.

The State Normal School will open Tuesday, September 25th.

Many of the county schools have been delayed in opening on account of repairs caused by the earthquake, still being made.

At the Supervisors' meeting Tuesday it was ordered that Binder & Shoemaker be selected as architects to prepare plans and specifications for an additional ward at the County Almshouse.

John Brennan, a ranch hand employed at the Quito ranch west of Campbell, was killed by falling from a loaded Santa Clara street car, Tuesday, while going to the circus. It happened near Vine street. He was taken to the Red Cross Sanitarium, but never regained consciousness.

B. F. Prather, of the Prather Land Co., of Selby, Fresno Co., who has a home here, is much pleased over the fact that we are to have no saloons here. He says that when the question was up for settlement at Selby many predicted that it would hurt the town to close the saloons, but since they closed Selby has advanced rapidly, property valuations have greatly increased.

The Southern Pacific has decided to build a coast line railroad to Portland at once. It will run direct from Corvallis, Oregon, to Coos Bay and from Coos Bay to Eureka. It will run over the Santa Fe line to Camp Five over the new line which it is constructing jointly with the Santa Fe to Sherwood and over the line of the California Northwestern to Tiburon.

Probably no better evidence of the city's prosperity can be shown than the numerous building permits issued by the Board of Police and Fire Commissioners, says the Herald. Building new structures has been somewhat at a standstill since the earthquake, the owners being busy making repairs. At the meeting of the Commissioners held Tuesday evening the report of Building Inspector Drew showed permits granted during the past two months aggregating over $100,000.

ELECTION OF U. S. SENATORS

A Matter In Which the Grange Is Actively Interested.

There is a growing interest in the matter of electing United States senators by popular vote. A somewhat novel feature of the recent Oregon state election was the expression by the voters of the state of their choice for senator. The law of the state does not permit election of senators by the people, and this was simply a test vote. What is most interesting is the fact that the candidate that would have been elected by the people is not the one which would have been designated by the legislature. Senator Gearin is the present incumbent and was a candidate in the recent test election, but the majority of the popular vote was in favor of his adversary. The majority in the present legislature is of the same political faith as Senator Gearin; consequently his election would have been assured, but in view of the fact that the expression of popular opinion was against him he has advised the legislature to select his adversary instead.

That the election of senators by the people will soon be the law in many states, if not all, is quite evident. Such action must be secured by an amendment to the constitution. Already representatives of nineteen states have requested congress to call a convention for the purpose of submitting a constitutional amendment.

It is well known by all members of the Order of Patrons of Husbandry that the popular election of senators has been one of their aims for several years. Each year the national master has asked the state organization to work to this end, and the creation of a public sentiment in favor of popular election of senators is due very largely to the quiet work of the grange throughout various states.

THE GRANGE RECOGNIZED.

It Was the Leader In Promoting Legislation For Denatured Alcohol.

The grange has the credit for the successful agitation by the state granges and many subordinate granges of the question of the removal of the internal revenue tax from alcohol for industrial purposes. National Master Bachelder says with regard to it "that while influence was exerted through other agencies, not for a moment has it been denied in any quarter that the grange has been the leader in promoting this legislation, and credit is due each of the 800,000 members in the United States who has interested himself or herself in this very important matter. Especial credit is due the masters of the various state granges for particularly energetic work. The result in this matter demonstrates the great influence of the grange when its members are united upon a worthy object of legislation and go vigorously and energetically about securing it.

That the grange is entitled to credit for leadership in securing this legislation is indicated by the following resolution adopted by the National Association of Piano Manufacturers in session in Washington, being one of a series of resolutions unanimously adopted favoring the passage of the free alcohol bill:

Resolved, That we extend the sincere thanks of this association to the national grange, Patrons of Husbandry, to whose intelligent and far reaching campaign of education the present favorable status of this subject in congress is very largely due.

J. T. Ailman.

J. T. Ailman is the efficient secretary of the Pennsylvania state grange. His boyhood was spent on the farm, and in 1874 he entered the sophomore class at Princeton university and graduated in 1877. He taught in Texas for the following year, then returned home to take charge of the academy at Port Royal, Pa., where he remained for two years; then he spent three years in New Mexico and returned to the Pennsylvania homestead in 1883.

J. T. AILMAN.

He purchased a farm, on which he has since resided. In 1888, having joined the grange in 1884. In 1900 he was chosen state lecturer, which position he filled for four years, and in 1904 he was elected secretary of the state grange and has been re-elected every two years since that time. He is an industrious, pains taking worker, with a single purpose to do well whatever work there is for him to do.

A Picnic Suggestion.

The grange picnic or field meeting can be a most useful adjunct to grange work if rightly conducted. The aims and purposes of the grange should always be presented briefly with a view to informing the many farmers who do not know as to what the grange is endeavoring to do for their interests.

Co-operative Buying.

Pioneer grange of Cranbury, N. J., is doing well in the line of co-operative buying. It has purchased $2,000 worth of clover seed in connection with the grange at Hightstown, also $5,000 worth of fertilizers and three carloads of seed potatoes.
